Comment Suggestion

Very prepared, smart professor who cared about students understanding material and teaching material fully.

Amazing professor. I wish he was my professor for all math courses.

Teacher was obviously very intelligent. Language barrier was hard. In 5 weeks it is difficult to teach a Calc class so I do not think it is all his fault. He does not seem to know the tricks to help beginners learn calculus but knows the material very well from the definitions. At a higher calculus I may struggle because majority of my learning came outside of class

I really enjoyed and learned a lot about the principles of calculus from this course and the instructor.
